

Class Handout for Lesson Ten
2 Corinthians 5, Second Half

1. Should preachers and teachers ever try to persuade hearers to respond to the teaching of the gospel? V. 11.
2. Whose interest did Paul seek in his teaching and preaching? V. 13.
3. What was the great compelling motive in Paul's life? V. 14.
4. What obligation arises from the vicarious death of Christ? V. 15.
5. What two consequences flow from the Christian's no longer living unto himself? Vv. 16-17.
6. What does Paul mean by "yet now we know [Christ after the flesh] no more"? V. 16.
7. What is the key to being a "new creation"? v. 17.
8. What is the source of the new creation? V. 18.
9. What is the basis of the new creation? V. 19.
10. What is the obligation of the new creation? Vv. 18-19.
11. What is the position of the new creation? V. 20.
12. What is the message of reconciliation? V. 21.