

Lesson 6: James 3:1-12

Sins of the Tongue

If anyone thinks he is religious and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his heart, this person's religion is worthless. (James 1:26)

But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.
(Matthew 12:36)

You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles?
(Matthew 7:16)

And the tongue is a fire, a world of unrighteousness. The tongue is set among our members, staining the whole body, setting on fire the entire course of life, and set on fire by hell.

Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you ought to answer each person.
(Colossians 4:6)

He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.
(Proverbs 25:28)

They set their mouths against the heavens, and their tongue struts through the earth. (Psalm 73:9)
