CORINTHIANS 14:33, 34, 40. (LESSON SEVEN) Taught on Wednesday night in the auditorium class at Liberty Hill

1 Cor. 14:33. "God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, in all churches of the saints."

1. NOT THE ANTHOR OF CONFUSION.

1. God did not give the gifts of the Spirit to produce confusion, but peace.

2. Any feeling, impulse, or desire of the heart, that leads a man to disregard a command of God, is another spirit and leads to confusion and not peace.

1. He is the God of peace so his true religion does not produce disorder, tumult, or unquietness.

2. Pure religion embodies calmness, peacefulness, and thoughtfulness.

3. Some lessons we may learn:

1. Where there is disorder and confusion there is little if any religion.

2. True religion does not lead to tumult, to outcries, or to irregularity.

3. It will not prompt many to speak or pray at the same time.

4. Neither will it justify noisy or tumultuous assemblies.

5. True religion does not lead a man to seek for the "number one" position regarding any work of the congregation.

6. Confusion is traceable not to Divine wisdom, but to human folly.

2. BUT OF PEACE, AS IN ALL THE CHURCHES OF THE SAINTS.

1. Peace cannot coexsist with confusion and restlessness, carelessness.

2. Luke 1:78, 79:

78-Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us, 79-To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

1 Cor. 14:34.

1. LET YOUR WOMEN KEEP SILENCE IN THE CHURCHES :

1. This rule is positive, explicit, and universal. "Keep silence in the churches". (1 Tim. 2:8-15; Eph. 5:22-28; 1 Pet. 3:1-7)

2. Some one would say:

1. That command for women was just meant for the Corinthian church.

2. I think not because:

"Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them answer that are saanctified in Christ Jesus, called ot be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both their's and our's." 1 Cor.1:2 TERRANCE 2, "For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints." 1 Cor. 14:33

3. Her obligation to keep within her sphere arises from:

1. Out of her natural position.

2. She is the weaker vessel. 1 Peter 3:7

3. It is confirmed by the command of God. 1 Cor. 14:34; 1 Tim. 2:12

4. Her silence should be dictitated by modesty.

Brother David Lipscomb said:

1. Many churches do not hestitate to set aside any order of God if that order gets in their way.

2. The habit of women preaching originated in the same hotbed with easy divorce, free love, repugnanace to child bearing and rearing.

in the auditorium eless at blowny Hill I CORTAINIANS NA 193, 35, 40. (LESSON SAVER) Taught on Hednesday night all churches of the saints." 1 Ger, 14:33, "God is not the author of coafusion, but of peace, in but peace. God ald not give the gifts of the Spirit to produce confusion, fusion and not peace. discogard a command of God, is another spirit and leads to con-2. Any feeling, impulse, or desire of the heart, that leads a man to

NOT THE AMEHOR OF COMPUSION.

1. He is the God of peace, so his true religion does not produce disorder, tumult, or unquietness.

2. Pure religion embodies calmness, peacefulness, and thoughtfulness.

3. Some lessons we may learn:

raligion. 1. Where there is disorder and confusion there is little if any irregularity. True religion does not lead to tumult, to outcries, or to

3. It will not prompt many to speak or pray at the same time, position regarding any work of the congresation. True religion does not lead a man to seek for the "number one" heither will it justify noisy or tumultuous assemblies.

6. Confusion is traceable not to Divine wisdom, but to human felly,

BUT OF PEACE, AS IN ALL THE CHURCHES OF THE SAINTS.

1. Peace cannot coexsist with confusion and restlessness, carelessness.

. Unto the way of peace. that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet 2. Luke 1:78. 79: 78-Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the 78-To give light to then

1 COM: 14:34

1. LET YOUR WOMEN KEEP GILENCE IN THE CHURCHES ;

the churches". (1 Tim. 2:8-15; Eph. 5:27-28; 1 Pet. 3:1-7) this rule is posicive, expitcit, and universal, "Keep schence in

2, Some one would say:

church. . That command for women was just meant for the Cortathian

I think not because:

Christ our Lord, both their's and our's." I Car, 1:2 . "For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints." I Cor, 14:33 JESS HALL, SR. EVANGELIST 1013 N, VANDERVEER Afth all that in every place call upon the name of vests BURNET, TEXAS 78611 that are sasnctified in Christ Jesus, called of be saints, "Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them

Liberty Hill, Texas 78642

(Downtown)

CH OF CHP THE TORCH P. O. Box 222

that order gats in their way. Many churches do not hestitate to sat aside any order of dod if easy divorce, free love, repugnanace to child bearing and resting. 2. The habit of women preaching originated in the same hotbed with