

NOTES ON RUTH 1:16, 17

1. Entreat me not to leave thee. All your instructions make it desirable for me to follow thee.
2. Whether thou goest, I will go. I have not seen the country where you lived but I have seen you
3. Where thou lodgest, I will lodge. It may be in a cottage, or no better than a stone such as Jacob had for his pillow.
4. Thy people shall be my people. Judging from what I have seen in thee:
 1. They must be a wise and understanding people.
5. Thy God shall be my God.
 1. Farewell to the gods of Moab with their lies and vanities.
 2. I would like to adore and worship the God whose power I have seen in the life of my mother-in-law.
6. Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried.
 1. Let me die the death of the righteous Naomi.

THE INTERPRETER'S
BIBLE

Christendom's Most Comprehensive Commentary

PREACHED AT OZONA, TEXAS SUNDAY MORNING
MAY 13, 1962
