SHADOWS OF LIFE Job 14:1, 2; John 16:33

The Shadows of this life:

- 1. The shadows of disappointed hopes.
 - (a) Hope is the great air-castle architect of human life:
 - 1. Hope springs eternal in the human breast.
 - 2. Hope is that companion that ever whispers, "It will be better after awhile."
 - 3. In the night of weeping hope says, "Weeping may endure for the night, but joy cometh in the morning."
- 2. There are the shadows of heartaches. (a) The sorrows of others cast their shadows over you. "My heart is broken."
- 3. There are those terrible sin shadows.
 (a) Sin brought death into the world with all of the awful things that sweep before our eyes today.
- 4. There are the shadows of bodily pain and suffering.
 - (a) Your memory is ever active here.
- 5. There are the shadows of bereavement and death.
 - (a) These are the shadows that are gathered here today. This is not an exceptional experience. Such is always before us.
