Romans 1:20 — For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse.

Isaiah 40:26 — Lift up your eyes on high and see: who created these? He who brings out their host by number, calling them all by name; by the greatness of his might and because he is strong in power, not one is missing.

Psalms 147:4-5 — He determines the number of the stars; he gives to all of them their names. Great is our Lord, and abundant in power; his understanding is beyond measure.

Job 38:19-20 — Where is the way to the dwelling of light, and where is the place of darkness, that you may take it to its territory and that you may discern the paths to its home?

Job 38:31-23 — Can you bind the chains of the Pleiades or loose the cords of Orion? Can you lead forth the Mazzaroth in their season, or can you guide the Bear with its children?

Genesis 22:17 — I will surely bless you, and I will surely multiply your offspring as the stars of heaven and as the sand that is on the seashore.

Psalms 19:1-2 — The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky above proclaims his handiwork. Day to day pours out speech, and night to night reveals knowledge.

Psalms 136:9 — The moon and stars to rule over the night, for his steadfast love endures forever.

1 Corinthians 15:41 — There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for star differs from star in glory.
